1. Introduction

The Ramakrishna Mission Sevashram, Lucknow, was started in a small way in 1914, for humanitarian work by a band of young people inspired by the lofty teachings of Swami Vivekananda, the great patriot saint of modern India. By 1925, its activities of social and religious services increased considerably and the Ramakrishna Mission Sevashram was formally affiliated to the world famous Ramakrishna Mission, a religious and philanthropic organisation founded by Swami Vivekananda, in 1897 at Belur Math, District Howrah, West Bengal. The Ramakrishna Mission Sevashram (hereinafter called Sevashram), till then functioning at Aminabad, was shifted to its present site at Vivekananda Puram in January 1967. The massive and extensive Vivekananda Polyclinic building designed for setting up a medical centre of a new type with a view to offering wide range of ultra modern diagnostic facilities and up-to-date medical therapeutic technology at affordable cost following the ideals of Swami Vivekananda, was formally dedicated for public service on 18th February, 1970. From June 1970, twelve well equipped outpatient departments started functioning.

The B.Sc. Nursing Course is intended to provide young women career opportunities to the noble profession of nursing, and to respond to the ever growing needs of the society to have qualified professionals who could provide quality nursing care both in Government and Private Sectors. The course also facilitates development of teaching, administrative and research skills in the students for their personal and professional growth. Avenues to join as Clinical Instructors in Nursing Colleges and/or to pursue specialized Diploma, M.Sc. (Nursing), PhD courses etc., for further advancement of careers is also open up on completion of this course. Career opportunities are not limited within India alone as there is a worldwide shortage of qualified nurses, including in many of the developed countries, such as, Europe, U.S.A., Australia etc. That being the case, qualified nurses could think of having career options abroad also.
